1. [ ] LIAISON At the request of Mike Burns, EA Division, I called Jack Brady, Chief of Staff, House International Relations Committee, to inquire of the purpose of Chairman Thomas E. Morgan's (D., Pa.) trip to the Far East. On another matter Brady indicated that he is getting all source clearances for himself and George Berdes, House International Relations Committee staff. Berdes will be doing the work Brady was doing before Brady moved up to Chief of Staff. Brady also said that his number two man would be Jack Sullivan and that he intended to designate Jack Sullivan as the person to see the NID in his absence. I told him I would get back to him.

2. [ ] BRIEFING Charles Stevenson, in the office of Senator John C. Culver (D., Iowa), called requesting a briefing for the Senator with respect to the political and military situations in countries in the Near East which he plans to visit in November. The countries involved are Egypt, Israel and Iran. November 1 at 2:00 p.m. was scheduled for the briefing.

3. [ ] BRIEFING In response to a letter from Senator John J. Sparkman (D., Ala.), Chairman, Senate Foreign Relations Committee, I called [ ] of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee staff, to ask if we could be of service. He said that he was getting briefed by State and AID for this trip and did not need a briefing from the Agency at this time. He said, however, that he might want to [ ] EA Division, has been advised and will send a cable to the station.

4. [ ] BRIEFING George Murphy, Executive Director, Joint Atomic Energy Committee, called and asked that a briefing be arranged for him and Senator Howard Baker (R., Tenn.) for Wednesday, 3 November at 2:00 p.m. in the Committee hearing room. The briefing would be an overview of the nuclear energy programs of the countries in the Middle East that the Committee will be visiting. I called [ ] OSI/NED, and arrangements were made for [ ] OSI, to give the briefing.

Consultant to the Special Subcommittee on Future Foreign Policy Research and Development of the House International Relations Committee, called Mr. Cary to say that the Subcommittee Chairman, Representative Lester Wolff (D., N. Y.) and he plan to leave for Europe on 4 November for an extended trip. One principal purpose was to pursue Chairman Wolff's interest in narcotics matters. Duskie asked if Chairman Wolff might meet with [ ] to discuss narcotics activities, relations between Stations and DEA, etc. Later checks showed that this trip of Chairman Wolff's was the same one that Fred Flott, Chairman Wolff's staff assistant for the House Select Committee on Narcotics Abuse and Control, had been briefed on several days ago. [ ] P&CS/NC/DDO, confirmed this. I told Duskie to query Flott further; he was surprised to learn of Flott's earlier interest and briefings. He said he would check with Flott and call back if there was anything more we could do for him.

10. [REDACTED] LIAISON Met with Marian Czarnecki,

departing Chief of Staff, House International Relations Committee, to debrief him from his compartmented clearances. I expressed to Mr. Czarnecki on behalf of the Director, Mr. Cary, and the OLC staff deep appreciation for his cooperation and help during his many years as Chief of Staff. He noted that he particularly appreciated the very kind letter from Mr. Bush. In addition, I met with Jack Brady and Jack Sullivan to secure from them secrecy agreements for additional compartmented clearances which they will need in their new staff roles. George Berdes, of the Committee staff, is being processed for compartmented clearances as well. [REDACTED] DCI Security Officer, has been advised.

12. [REDACTED] LIAISON Larry Callahan, Department of Justice, called and said that with regard to requests coming from the House Select Committee on Assassinations, they were asking that the requests be forwarded in writing under Chairman Thomas N. Downing's (D., Va.) signature. I mentioned Patricia Orr's, on the Committee staff, request regarding number of Agency people who worked on the Warren Commission and told him that we may handle it informally this time but agreed it was a good idea to get requests in writing.

13. [REDACTED] LIAISON Accompanied [REDACTED]

O/S, to a session with Donovan Gay and Jacqueline Hess, Research Director and Deputy respectively for the House Select Committee on Assassinations, to eyeball the space in House Annex No. 2 set aside for the Committee. The session was generally uneventful, it being much too early to provide them specific recommendations on physical security. Both Gay and Hess said they recognized the vital importance of sound security practices and we learned that indeed the Committee will be hiring a full-time professional security officer.
